

Movie Night: Popcorn and Perspectives

Join us for a fun movie night screening of Stand and Deliver, followed by a discussion at the North Vancouver City Library. Stand and Deliver is the true story of a high school teacher who inspires his students to succeed despite facing challenges and doubts.

- Explore tales of identity, resilience, and growth
- Learn about educational inequality and under-representation
- Learn to build confidence, even when faced with stereotypes

Pizza, popcorn, and refreshments will be provided!

Register Online:

go.impactnorthshore.ca/youth-movie-night

For more information, please contact:

Walid Azizi, Walida@impactnorthshore.ca

Workshop Highlights

Wednesday, December 18
4:00 pm – 6:00 pm

This movie night invites youth to watch a powerful film about identity, resilience, and overcoming obstacles. Join us to engage in a conversation on how education can empower and inspire.

Details:

This program will be presented in English.

This program is open to newcomer and immigrant youth in grades 7–12. Permanent residents, protected persons and CUAET holders are particularly encouraged to register.

In-person

North Vancouver City Library
120 West 14th Street

To participate in this workshop, you must be registered as a client with Impact North Shore.

This program is government funded and free of charge.