

Black History Month: Building Brave Spaces

Join us in a conversation about Black History Month to discuss create community spaces for growth and exploration.

Topics include:

- Learning about the history of inclusion and exclusion of black communities in BC
- Hearing and discussing how we can all foster safe and welcoming spaces for community conversations and cross-cultural connection
- Asking questions and share your thought about belonging, inclusion and black history in Canada

Online Registration:

go.impactnorthshore.ca/black-history-month

For more information and to register contact:
Front Desk, office@impactnorthshore.ca or 604-988-2931

Workshop Highlights

Monday, March 24
5:30 pm – 7:00 pm

Learn about black history, the importance of healing, and the importance of building community spaces for connection and care for all of our community members.

Join us in this conversation with guest speaker Ivan Leonce (RSW), as they guide us in dialogue to build understanding and explore ways to foster a stronger sense of community.

Details:

This workshop will be presented in English and is open everyone

Online via Zoom

Details to provided after registration.

This program is government funded and free of charge.

Funded by:

Financé par :

Immigration, Refugees
and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada